About Marathwada Mitra Mandal (India)

Being established through an inspiration of socially and educationally charged personalities, we, Marathwada Mitra Mandal established in 1967 as the charitable trust, serves with a motto "Yethe Bahutanche Hit" (Welfare of Masses). At its various educational campuses, excellent facilities of education are provided to more than 12000 students pertaining to Architecture, Management, Law, Commerce, Pharmacy and Engineering etc. Recently Marathwada Mitra Mandal's four colleges are accredited with 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).

About Shankarrao Chavan Law College, Pune (India)

Under the patronage of Marathwada Mitra Mandal, Shankarrao Chavan Law College was established in 2003 with the objective of nurturing future legal professionals and researchers with ideals and values required for playing constructive role to create a better world. The College is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University, approved by Bar Council of India, recognized by Government of Maharashtra with an ISO Certification and accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC. And thus stands as one of the premier law colleges in India. Our College has a motto 'Quality Legal Education for Masses'. Since inception our College has been encouraging the students to develop themselves into the legal professionals having legal knowledge, acumen and expertise suitable for dynamic and globalized legal industry. With this view, apart from academic excellence, we nurture the students with several co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. We host wide range of co-curricular activities such as Justice P.B. Sawant National Moot Court Competition, Late Shri Shankarrao Chavan Memorial State Level Elocution Competition, PG Department of Law National Conference, etc. We also run various centers and cells such as Center for Advanced Legal Research & Training (CALRT), Family Counselling Center, Center for Academic Research, Publication & E-content in Law (CARPEL), etc.

The Centre for Academic Research, Publication & E-Content in Law (CARPEL) (MMM's SCLC, Pune, India)

The CARPEL is to endeavour new frontiers of knowledge by way of inculcating the skills of deep inquiry, scientific investigation, fact and solution finding mechanism with various experiments. Activities through CARPEL are helping in improving and discovering new challenges to our knowledge and to overcome all such contemporary challenges with futuristic approach. It works into three wings namely - Research, Publication and E-Content Development. Apart from the Student and Faculty Research activities at National & International Level, under its flagship, we publish an International Journal 'SCLC Law Review', a national journal 'SCLC Journal of Contemporary Issues' (Student Edition), edited books and various compilations as study material. It is also developing electronic content in law in the form of Audio, Visual, Audio-visual, Video Lectures, electronic readable content, etc.

About University of Colombo (Sri Lanka)

Being the Oldest University in Sri Lanka, the University of Colombo carries the legacy to maintain academic excellence in all areas of study with nine faculties with 56 Academic Departments, 7 Institutes and 8 Centres and Units, in pursuit of its motto "Buddhi Sarvathra Bhrajate", Sanskrit for "Wisdom Enlightens". With a proud history of over 115 years, it continues in its endeavour to meet the challenge of maintaining its position as the "Metropolitan University, Modern and International in Outlook and Character". The complex of the University, located in the heart of the capital city of Colombo has enchanting features.

About Faculty of Law, University of Colombo (Sri Lanka)

The Faculty of Law of the University of Colombo is the only Faculty of Law in the entire University system of Sri Lanka. The Department of Law was established in July 1947. The Faculty of Law has three Departments, Department of Public and International Law, Department of Private and Comparative Law and Department of Commercial Law, along with the Centre for the Study of Human Rights. The main objective of legal education in the Faculty of Law has been not only to teach its students what the law is but also, and importantly, to teach them what the law ought to be. Apart from this students are trained in various skills required for the legal profession. It is not a place where only knowledge is imparted; it is a place where students are educated to develop a habit of mind which will enable them to search for the truth. They should contribute to the rule of law and be responsible citizens with social sympathy and with proper attitude to serve their motherland which has provided a lot for them to obtain this education. The Faculty of Law concentrates not only on transmission of legal knowledge but inculcates contemporary perspective towards Human Rights.

The Centre for the Study of Human Rights (CSHR) (Sri Lanka)

The CSHR is an educational and research centre attached to the Faculty of Law, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka. Its mandate is to conduct and facilitate human rights education and research programmes for the university community and the community at large. The CSHR carries out human rights based multi-disciplinary programmes and projects under its mandate of human rights education and research in its four identified areas of work, which are: Human Rights Education, Research, Capacity Building and Knowledge Services, which are accessible to diverse groups of persons. Currently it offers many educational programmes ranging from certificate courses to a Masters Degree in Human Rights and Democratization and has collaboration with regional Universities in the Asia Pacific region.

Theme of the Conference

“Legal Dimensions of Human Rights in the Technological Realm”

The imaginations in the Science fiction are reality now. The autonomous and intelligent technologies, endowed with independent reasoning and decision making, are transforming the landscape of human rights in prominent way. This potential impact is giving birth to new social, political, economic and cultural challenges clubbed with legal repercussions to be encountered with. The conventional legal perspective has to be widened to encompass these transformative yet exigent technological revolutionary tides. Its dynamic and dual nature poses a real & tormenting warning and threat to human rights and Law, being the custodian and protector, must take a call now.

In the light of these rapid developments, the theme of present International Conference is aimed to inspire multi-disciplinary research and to provide an international platform for disseminating intellectual explorations of jurists, legal practitioners and judges, data science and IT specialists, policy-makers, national security and law enforcement experts and budding minds who are contributing significantly at all levels. Participation will provide you with the unique opportunity to deepen your insights about the varying paradigm of human rights in context of the socio-legal implications of new data technologies globally. This journey will encompass a visit to diverse techno-legal outlooks of human rights and will ensure an opportunity to discuss appropriate policy and legal responses to benefits and risks.

The global guardian of Human rights, UN has already taken a lead to develop “A Magna Carta for the Digital Age”. The resultant international collaborative research of the present International Conference will surely enlighten a new beacon and assist the global legal efforts in imprinting manner.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in enchanting Pune in 2020.
