Dear Students,

Sub: Call for applications for London Study Tour-2014

They say to travel is to possess the world, and keeping the same in mind All India Law Students Association has created a travel based learning platform of which study tours constitute an essential part. We envision a knowledge based society, eliminating boundaries and bringing people together in the spirit of learning. Our journeys have helped participants realize their full potential through invigorating travel experiences by stretching the boundaries of the classroom.

As the president of All India Law Students Association, it is my privilege to announce the London Study tour 2014. We believe the study tour shall help students appreciate the systematization and organization of the society abroad, and shall broaden their horizon by providing them opportunities to meet many such students and corporates.

Please see attached the particulars and application form for the study tour. I invite you all to apply and hope you make best of the opportunity provided.

Thank You

Warm Regards

Manas Dowlani
President, AILSA
