ITC GRAND CHOLA

63, Mount Road, Guindy, Chennai - 600 032, INDIA.

Introduction:

The Nani Palkhivala Arbitration Centre (NPAC), was founded by Palkhivala foundation to provide facilities for Institutional Arbitration and to foster the growth and development of arbitral law. It was formally inaugurated on December 21, 2005. NPAC is a non-profit organisation registered under the Companies Act 1956, with the aim of providing a world-class facility to conduct arbitration proceedings and also to make it a Centre of excellence in the matter of institutional arbitration. The purpose of establishing the Centre is to provide quick, efficient and cost effective arbitration services, to disseminate and guide the development and growth information relating to Arbitration.

Aim & Objective:

Heightened economic activity and interaction worldwide has lead to great demand for dispute redressal processes that are efficient, quick and affordable. Institutional Arbitration provides an answer to these demands. Many companies have adopted the Dispute Resolution clauses of arbitration institutions in their contracts. One of the goals of NPAC is to promote institutional arbitration. In this regard, institutional rules are made available to parties. NPAC has a panel of arbitrators who are outstanding persons of eminence representing the Bar, Commerce, Education, Trade & Industry. They include retired judges of various High Courts, retired Civil Servants, Chartered Engineers, Chartered Accountants. The growth of arbitration is brought to limelight through various conferences conducted on alternate dispute resolution. An international conference on Arbitration is held annually. The five conferences held in the last few years, at Chennai, Coimbatore, Bangalore, Mumbai and New Delhi were well received by the international and Indian legal community. The conference combines interactive lectures with analysis of actual cases and will create an awareness on this emerging field. It also aims to explore and develop the new perspectives in this area by involving eminent practitioners across the globe.

Faculty:

Our Panelists are a mix of Indian and International experts in the field of Arbitration. Conference agenda includes eminent speakers across the globe, discussing and presenting speeches on current affairs and different trends in Arbitration. Participate and benefit from this International forum.

Who should attend?

Professionals from all fields who have interest in arbitration - Accountants, Arbitrators, Lawyers, In-house Counsel, Financial Intermediaries, CEOs and Law Students.
