A college girl named Jui claimed that an auto rickshaw driver had attempted to abduct her in front of a wine shop. Working undercover in the local wine shop back-rooms, detectives learned of a rumour that an auto driver called Shiva was behind the alleged crimes of abduction of 9 teenage girls in Thane, Maharashtra.

The following morning, the police picked up the suspect. Shiva was alleged to have committed six murders, over a period of two years in 2012-2014. The bodies of the victims were either burnt or buried inside residential houses.

During his arrest Shiva blamed films for "making a devil of him", and during interrogation he revealed a more sinister force. According to the statement which he narrated to the Investigation Officer, he stated that he had kidnapped the girls for powerful state politicians, subsequently disposing their bodies after his patrons had raped them. The police presented him the next day in the Magistrate's Court and recorded his statement in the presence of the Honorable Magistrate.

Therefore the Ld. Public Prosecutor be pleased to frame the following charges before this Hon'ble Court.
