4. Debate Rules :

PART ONE - THE FORMAT OF DEBATE

1.1 Each debating match will consist of two teams; one to propose the motion and one to oppose it. The team proposing may be known as 'The Proposition', 'The Affirmative' or 'The Government'. The team opposing may be known as 'The Opposition' or 'The Negative'. Teams will be designated as the Proposition or the Opposition for each round of the competition.

1.2 Each debate shall be adjudicated by a panel comprising of an odd number of adjudicators. One of these shall be designated as Chairperson. In exceptional situations, and only in Phase 1, a debate may be adjudicated by a single experienced adjudicator.

1.3 Each debate shall be timed by a timekeeper. In the absence of a timekeeper, a member of the adjudication panel will time the speeches.

1.4 Teams will comprise the following members.

1.4.1 AFFIRMATIVE.

- a) Prime Minister, or 1st Affirmative.
- b) Deputy Prime Minister, or 2nd Affirmative.
- c) Government Whip, or 3rd Affirmative

1.4.2 NEGATIVE.

- a) Leader of the Opposition, or 1st Negative.
- b) Deputy Leader of the Opposition, or 2nd Negative.
- c) Opposition Whip, or 3rd Negative

1.5 Debaters will speak in the following order:

- i) Prime Minister, or 1st Affirmative.
- ii) Leader of Opposition, or 1st Negative.
- iii) Deputy Prime Minister, or 2nd Affirmative.
- iv) Deputy Leader of Opposition, or 2nd Negative.
- v) Government Whip, or 3rd Affirmative.
- vi) Opposition Whip, or 3rd Negative.
- vii) Opposition Reply Speech, to be given by either the 1st or 2nd Negative speaker.
- viii) Government Reply Speech, to be given by either the 1st or 2nd Affirmative speaker.

1.6 Speakers not 'holding the floor' may not rise during a speech unless it is to offer a 'Point of Information' (see Part Five of this document). Speakers doing so, or considered to be heckling, barracking or whose behaviour is interfering with the acceptable course of a debate will be declared 'out of order' or will be 'called to order' by the Chairperson.

PART TWO - MOTIONS

2.1 The motions for each round will reflect a specific and well-known theme, and each round of the competition will comprise of three motions.

2.2 On release of the motions, both teams to a match-up rank their preferred motions. The third option of both teams is immediately dropped. If there remains a clear favourite, that motion is directly selected. If the teams have the same most-preferred motion then that will be the debate motion. In case of an undecided tie between the two remaining motions, the motion for that round and match-up will be decided on the basis of toss of a coin. It is the responsibility of the timekeeper to oversee the choice and selection of the motion.

PART THREE - PREPARATIONS

3.1 Match-ups and venues will be announced before motions are revealed.

3.2 Once the motions are released, teams must immediately proceed to their venues, where the motion is decided upon. From the time of selection of the motion, teams have 20 minutes preparation time until the commencement of the debate in that round.

3.3 The Government has the right to prepare in chambers (venue).

3.4 Printed and prepared materials may be used during the preparation period. No access to electronic media or electronic storage or retrieval devices is permitted after motions have been released. This includes but is not limited to, all kinds of computers, electronic data banks, cellular phones, etc. Printed and prepared materials may be accessed during a debate, but may not be used by a speaker holding the floor.

3.5 Teams must prepare on their own. Once motions have been released, there must be no contact between debaters in a particular team and coaches, trainers, friends, observers or any other individual for the purposes of assistance in the context of the debate. Such contact and assistance is deemed as 'cheating' and will be punished strictly.

3.6 Teams failing to arrive in time for the debate will forfeit that particular round. Failure to turn up for two rounds will lead to the team being disqualified.

PART FOUR - TIMING

4.1 It is the duty of the timekeeper, or of a panelist or Chair (in absence of a timekeeper), to time all the speeches in each round.

4.2 The timing of each speech starts at the moment that the member begins speaking.

4.3 Times for speeches:

Substantive Speeches

Preliminary Rounds and Quarter-finals: 6 + 1 minutes.

Semi-finals: 7 + 1 minutes.

Grand-finals: 8 + 1 minutes.

Reply Speeches: 4 minutes in all Rounds, and 5 minutes in the Grand finals.

4.4 Time signals will be given in the following manner,

Preliminary Rounds and Quarter-finals:

End of first minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of sixth minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of seventh minute - double knock of the gavel.

Semi-finals and Grand Final

End of first minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of seventh minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of eighth minute - double knock of the gavel.

Grand Finals:

End of first minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of eighth minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of ninth minute - double knock of the gavel.

Reply Speeches:

End of third minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of fourth minute - Double knock of the gavel.

Reply Speeches in the Grand Finals:

End of fourth minute - single knock of the gavel.

End of fifth minute - Double knock of the gavel.

4.5 Once the double knock of the gavel has sounded, speakers have a 20-second grace period, during which they should conclude their speech. After this grace period has elapsed, there will be a continuous knocking of the gavel, and adjudicators must disregard the rest of that particular speech. Speakers continuing after the grace period can also be penalized by the adjudicators in the Method category.

4.6 If the speaker concludes his/her speech before the second single knock of the gavel, he or she should be penalized under Method and possibly also under Matter. The latter, assuming that less matter was advanced, or that it was clearly underdeveloped.

PART FIVE – POINTS OF INFORMATION

5.1 Points of Information (POIs) may be offered during the six substantive speeches only, after the first single knock of the gavel and up to the second single knock of the gavel. Points of Information may not be offered during the first and last minutes of substantive speeches. If a Point of Information is offered in the first or the last minute of a constructive speech, it is the duty of the speaker holding the floor to reject the same as being out of order. Only if the speaker holding the floor fails to do the same, the chair of the adjudicator panel may very briefly intervene and call the house to order.

5.2 A POI must be indicated by a member of an opposing team rising from his/her seat. A member offering a Point of Information may draw attention to the offer by saying “on that point Sir/Madam,” or short headlining tags. These tags cannot be more than two words long and if entire questions are posed in the tag this can be marked down under method.

5.3 A member holding the floor must respond to an opposing member, or members offering POIs, in one of the following ways.

5.3.1 A clear gesture or hand signal rejecting the offer.

5.3.2 A verbal rejection of the offer, or

5.3.3 A verbal acceptance of the offer.

5.4 If a POI is accepted, the point should be phrased as a question, or clarification, or comment, and ideally made in no more than 15 seconds. Points of Information should be such that they allow the member holding the floor some chance of responding.

5.5 After a POI has been offered, no further clarifications may be sought either by the speaker holding the floor or by the member offering the Point of Information, except strictly in situations where the Point of Information is clearly inaudible, and therefore a repetition of the same is necessary.

5.6 Points of Information are marked for their strategic use under Method, and for their content under Matter. Unwarranted use of points of information can be marked down under Manner. (See parts 10, 11, and 12 of this document for more on Matter, Manner, and Method).

PART SIX - ADJUDICATION

6.1 Debates are generally adjudicated by panels of three adjudicators, or, where this is not possible, by a single, senior adjudicator. Larger panels will adjudicate the semi-finals and the finals. The 'Best Speaker' of the competition shall be determined on the basis of overall individual points in Phase 1 of the Competition.

6.2 All the debaters must leave the chambers following the completion of all speeches. Adjudicators will arrive at their decisions on an individual basis, fill in the speed ballots, and pass them to the timekeeper. Adjudicators cannot confer with each other before marking and handing over their speed ballots. A majority decision will prevail for each round of the competition.

6.3 The adjudicators may confer and discuss the debate and their feedback (in no event for more than 5 minutes) before announcing the results before the teams in rounds where there is open adjudication. In all of these rounds (except for the Finals), there will be an open adjudication after the decision for each debate is announced, where adjudicators will give reasons for their decision and other feedback to the teams. The last two rounds of Phase 1 will be closed rounds – that is, results will not be announced to the teams nor will there be open adjudication.

6.4 Debaters should not indulge in, and adjudicators should not entertain excessive argumentation or cross-questioning, at the time of the open adjudication.

PART SEVEN - DEFINITIONS

7.1 The definition is the interpretation of the motion as put forward by the Prime Minister, or First Affirmative, in his opening remarks. There must exist a clear and logical link between the definition and the wording and spirit of the motion. The onus for establishing how the definition ties in with the given motion lies completely upon the Prime Minister. All subsequent speakers have a purely clarificatory role (if any) in this regard.

7.2 The definition should be reasonable.

7.3 The definition should state the issue or issues arising out of the motion to be debated and state the meanings of any terms in the motion requiring clarification.

7.4 The definition should not be:

7.4.1 A truism (a matter stated as fact).

7.4.2 A tautology (a definition which, in development, proves itself).

7.4.3 Place set (setting an unnaturally restrictive geographical or spatial location as its major parameter).

7.4.4 Time set (setting an unnaturally restrictive chronological duration as its main parameter).

7.4.5 Wholly unreasonable (displaying no clear or logical links to the motion).

7.5 The Negative can challenge the definition advanced by the Affirmative only on the basis of one or more of the above-mentioned conditions. It must clearly state the individual condition(s) based upon which it is challenging the definition. If there are more than one conditions of challenge, the individual conditions of challenge shall be adjudicated upon independent of each other.

The Negative may not challenge a definition supplied by the Affirmative on the basis that:

7.5.1 The definition does not adhere to the theme provided for the round

7.5.2 Its own definition is MORE reasonable.

7.5.3 A better debate will result. Nor may the Negative re-define terms or words contained in the motion so that a completely different debate is thereby set up. However, a Negative may contend with the specific or general approach to terminology supplied by the definition of the Affirmative.

PART EIGHT- CHALLENGING THE DEFINITION

8.1 The definitional challenge must be made in the speech of the Leader of the Opposition, following a clear statement that the definition is being rejected. The onus for establishing the definitional challenge lies completely upon the Leader of the Opposition. Subsequent speakers are strictly permitted a purely clarificatory role (if any) in this regard.

8.2 In the event of a challenge, the Leader of the Opposition must do all of the following -

8.2.1 He must justify his/her rejection by supplying the ground(s) on which the original definition has been rejected.

8.2.2 He must supply a substitute definition.

8.2.3 The Opposition benches must then go on to negate the substitute definition.

If the Opposition does not do all of the above it automatically loses the debate.

8.3 If the Leader of the Opposition does not challenge the definition, no other speaker may do so.

8.4 The onus to prove that a definition is unreasonable is on the Opposition, and should not be presumed by the adjudicators.

8.5 Adjudicators should not indicate during the debate whether the definitional challenge has succeeded. They cannot indicate which definition they find to be (more) acceptable. The final decision as to whether a definitional challenge has succeeded must take into consideration all 8 speeches in any debate, subject to conformity with 7.1 and 8.1.

8.6 Neither team should abandon either the definitions or the challenges of its opening speakers.

8.7 Definitions should not require members of the house to have access to, or possess, specific or expert knowledge.

8.8 If a definitional challenge is upheld, the team making the challenge wins by the largest possible margin.

If the definitional challenge fails, then the team making such a challenge loses by the largest possible margin. A definitional challenge should take place in the rarest of rare cases.

8.9 If more than one condition is stated as a ground for a definitional challenge, for the challenge to succeed it is sufficient that any one condition, adjudicated upon independent of the other condition(s), is upheld.

8.10 The 'even-if' rule does not apply in the event of a challenge being issued in this tournament.

PART NINE : QUALIFYING CRITERIA FOR ROUNDS

9.1 The sole qualifying criteria for each round will be on the 'knock-out' basis, to be decided on the basis of marked scores.

PART TEN : MARKING CRITERIA

10.1 At the end of every debate, each adjudicator must complete their adjudication forms.

10.2 There are no draws in competitive debating.

10.3 Teams failing to turn up for the debate on time, and with no valid reason, will lose the debate by the widest possible margin. The other team will then face-off against a stand-by swing team [non-competitive for the purposes of the competition] constituted by the host University.

10.4 For constructive speeches, marks shall be awarded to speakers based on the following

10.4.1 An 'average' speech shall be awarded

Matter: 30/40

Manner: 30/40

Method: 15/20

Total: 75/100

10.4.2 A speaker may not under any circumstance be awarded less than 28/40 in Matter and Manner, and less than 13/20 in Method. Therefore, the worst speech in the history of debating would still get 69/100

10.4.3 A speaker may not under any circumstance be awarded more than 32/40 in Matter and Manner, and more than 17/20 in Method. Therefore, the best speech in the history of debating would get no more than 81/100.

10.5 For reply speeches, marks shall be awarded to speakers based on the following.

10.5.1 An 'average' reply speech shall be awarded

Manner: 15/20

Effectiveness: 22/30

Total: 37/50

10.5.2 A speaker may not under any circumstance be awarded less than 14/20 in Manner, and less than 20/30 in Effectiveness. Therefore, the worst reply speech in the history of debating would still get 34/50.

10.5.3 A speaker may not under any circumstance be awarded more than 16/20 in Manner and more than 24/30 in Effectiveness. Therefore, the best reply speech in the history of debating would get no more than 40/50.

10.6 The 'average' mark for an 'average team' is therefore: $75+75+75+37 = 262/350$

PART ELEVEN: CHANGE OF RULES

11.1 Any or all of the above rules, regulations, and guidelines are subject to change at the discretion of the organisers.

PART TWELVE : GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

12.1 Any serious grievances during the course of the competition may be communicated in writing to the organisers
