

CERTIFICATE COURSE ON APPLIED CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE (24 -28 August, 2016)

About the Course:

"May man be a little lower than angels, he has not shed off the brute and the brute within is apt to break loose at occasions."

– H R Khanna, Former Judge,
Supreme Court of India.

Human beings are capable of committing offences which are harmful, threatening, or endangering to the property, health, safety and moral welfare of people. Criminal law governs such offences, and is multifarious in nature. Criminal law consists of three major acts, namely, Indian Penal Code, The Code of Criminal Procedure and Indian Evidence Act, and many other minor acts. Each action of ours is under constant scrutiny for being in confirmation with the laws we are governed by, including Criminal Law, making it an integral part of our lives. Study of Criminal law is not only enriching, but also essential.

Takeaway from the course:

- To develop an understanding of Criminal law with special emphasis on its practical aspects;
- To familiarize students with practical aspects of Criminal law by supplementing theoretical aspects with real scenarios;
- To provide a platform for discussion and exchange of ideas;
- To help students identify career prospects in Criminal Law.
