Organizes

NATIONAL SEMINAR

VIRTUAL REALITIES AND EMERGING INEQUALITIES

24th September, 2016

The Army Institute of Law (AIL) was established in July 1999 by the Indian Army under the aegis of the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES). With 'Aspire & Achieve' as its motto, the Institute has grown as a Centre of Excellence in the field of legal education. The Institute is accredited grade 'A' by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). The Institute ranks in top 15 Law Colleges of India as surveyed by India Today.

Army Institute of Law, in its endeavour to deliberate upon dynamics of law; organizes the National seminar wherein clinching realities of law encountering relevance followed by discussion. The decade of 2006-16 has witnessed a major faceoff in respect of changing forms of governance and governments, international organizations, constitutionalism, technology interface and corporate governance in the information age. Moreover, the right to access to information is shifting its paradigm to access to e- information in the backdrop of imbibed constitutional freedoms. Therefore, we cordially invite teaching community, regulatory bodies, government departments/organisations and various other stakeholders to initiate a dialogue on the theme 'Virtual Realities and Emerging Inequalities' to critically analyse the contribution of legal framework, technology and other initiatives to find the way for the future challenges. This seminar invites original paper on theoretical, methodological, empirical, comparative, and substantial and procedural rules oriented towards law and an interface with other social sciences. The institute plans to publish the seminar proceedings in the form of book. ISBN has already been applied for. Selected papers shall be notified for the purpose. The broad sub themes of Seminar are:

1. Virtual Sovereignty: Changing forms of Governments
2. Future of the Cyber state.
3. E behaviour of individuals and Basic Social Structures
