3.2 'Advanced Round' means the Final Round, Semi-Final Round, Quarter-Final Round or PreQuarter Final Round (subject to organisers' discretion) of the Competition

3.3 'Clarifications' refer to procedural order(s) and/or any clarification(s) issued by the administrator.

3.4 'Competition' means the I NLSIU Animal Protection PL Competition, 2017.

3.5 'IST' means Indian Standard Time.

3.6 'Memorial' means the written submissions of each team, submitted according to these Rules.

3.7 'Oralist' refers to a participant who presents oral arguments in any given round.

3.8 'Participant' refers to any member of a participating university.

3.9 'Penalty' refers to the deductions imposed on the memorial scores of a participating university, as provided for within the rules.

'Plagiarism' – If, in the memorial checker's opinion, there is found to be an instance of plagiarism prevalent in a certain memorial, the participating university alleged to have committed plagiarism will be asked to show cause by the administrator. If found guilty of plagiarism, the administrator may impose any sanction that it may deem fit, including disqualification from the Competition. In instances where the participating university is alleged to have plagiarized from the memorial of another participating university memorial, the latter will also be asked to show cause by the administrators. If, in the opinion of the administrators, the latter has willingly allowed the former to plagiarize from their work, such a participating university shall also be held guilty of plagiarism and sanctioned by the administrators as they deem fit.

The administrators define plagiarism as including the following:

1. Direct duplication of the work of somebody else's work represented inter alia in books, articles, internet sources without acknowledgement.
2. Substantial duplication of somebody else's work represented inter alia in books, articles, and internet sources without acknowledgement. This would include work where sentences have been substantially copied, that is, where at the least seven continuous words from the original work are present in the impugned memorial and / or where a segment of the impugned memorial has been paraphrased from the original work with minor changes, keeping intact the import of the original work without acknowledging the same.

Direct or substantial duplication of another competition memorial, irrespective of whether that memorial is a competing memorial or not, and irrespective of whether there is acknowledgement or not. Substantial duplication denotes situations wherein sentences have been substantially copied, that is, where at the least seven continuous words from the original work are present in the impugned memorial and / or where a segment of the impugned memorial has been paraphrased from the other memorial with minor changes, keeping intact the import of the latter.
