ISIL Sixth Winter Course on Settlement of Disputes in International Law 26 December 2016 – 30 December 2016

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V. K. Krishna Menon and was inaugurated in the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, with the objective to "foster nation-wide the study and development of International Law and to encourage the comparative study of the application of International Law in other States". The ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which has attained a high standard and is held in high esteem the world over. The ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. It organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. Finally, and equally important, it conducts and promotes independent research on issues of International Law. The teaching wing of the ISIL- the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy - runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law. The ISIL organises every year a Summer Course in international law to bring to you the current developments and their importance in the field.

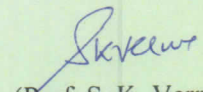

From 2010 academic year, the ISIL organizes a one-week winter course every year on specific areas of international law viz., in 2010, the First Winter Course on International Environmental Law, Second Winter Course on International Trade Law 2011, Third Winter Course on Private International Law 2012, Fourth Winter Course on Trade and Investment Law 2014, Fifth Winter Course on International Taxation Laws.

We are pleased to announce the ISIL Sixth Winter Course on Settlement of Disputes in International Law which will commence from Monday, 26 December 2016, to Friday, 30 December 2016. The topics will relate to: UN Charter and Pacific Means of Settlement of Disputes; International Court of Justice; Arbitration (Institutional and Ad hoc Arbitration, PCA, ICSID etc); Dispute Settlement System in Law of the Sea (ICJ, ITLOS and Arbitration) and WTO DSS; International Criminal Court; Emerging Laws to Settle the Disputes in the field of Environment, Air and Space Law; Commercial & Investment Arbitration etc.

The Society endeavours to make available the best expertise available in the respective fields as course instructors, which would include noted academicians, governmental, non-governmental and UN officials etc.

The course will comprise classroom lectures, discussion, counseling and library consultation on weekdays. The course fee would be Rs. 2,700/- for students and Rs. 3,300/- for teachers and lawyers. Maximum 300 participants can be admitted on the basis of first-cum basis. Demand drafts shall be drawn in favour of the Indian Society of International Law. Online registration is also placed at ISIL website. At the end of the course a certificate of attendance will be given to all the participants.

We hope you /your institution will make use of this opportunity of attending the winter course.
