THE ASYMMETRIC SHOCK

The Center for Specialization in Business and Innovation of Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad Campus will be holding the first of its kind - ‘The Asymmetric Shock’, a national level model World Economic Forum, in Hyderabad on 3rd and 4th March, 2018. The event shall replicate the sessions of the World Economic Forum.

About the Event

“Asymmetric Shock” signifies the happening of an unexpected event that as a crisis, affects one or more economies on different levels. This can create big problems for policymakers if they are trying to set a macroeconomic policy, which works for both the area affected by the shock directly, or other areas affected indirectly.

“The Asymmetric Shock” encapsulates the functioning of the World Economic Forum. The Forum comprises of delegates from countries all over the world who will discuss and deliberate on topics of economic interests. Candidates are expected to register either as single delegations or double delegations. Based on the outcome of the discussion, recommendations will be framed in the mutual interest of all participating countries.

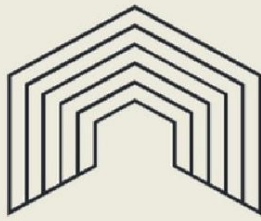

THE ASYMMETRIC SHOCK

Structure of the Event

The Asymmetric Shock runs on the lines of a Model United Nations (MUN) however, with certain variations.

- The candidates shall act as the delegates of the respective countries allotted to them. Each of the candidates shall represent the best economic interests of their respective country.
- The Agenda for discussion shall be provided to the candidates. It shall present an urgent economic crisis affecting the countries.
- The Forum is the platform of discussion of the Agenda, at the end of which, recommendations shall be presented. The Forum shall be headed by the Executive Board comprising of the Chair and the Co-Chair. The discussion shall be presided over by Moderators.
- There shall be four Sessions of the Forum as follows:
 - 1) The First Session shall be an open caucus. Each delegate shall be allotted 3-5 minutes to make the representation, on behalf of the respective country, regarding the Agenda.
 - 2) The second and the third Session shall comprise of deliberation on the Agenda, with representations and recommendations from each country for debate and discussion.
 - 3) The Fourth Session shall be the concluding session. Each delegate may choose to make closing remarks and establish their position with regards to the Agenda.
